Idea

Support in developing regional value chains

The Food Security Programme of ECDPM actively supports public and private sector organisations and businesses in developing regional markets and promoting investment through public-private-partnerships (PPP). We are interested in hearing the views of businesses, cooperatives and business associations on the opportunities and bottlenecks of developing regional value chains. We have an extensive network of regional African and EU organisations. We offer information, analysis and research to support effective and inclusive public-private partnerships.
